General notes

Adding a particular

Place a cross in the 'add' box in the left hand column when adding a new particular to your register of interests.

Removing a particular

Place a cross in the 'remove' box in the left hand column when removing a particular from your register of interests.

If there is insufficient space on this form for all of the details you are required to give you may attach additional papers for that purpose. You must sign and date each additional paper.

When completing this form, insert the words 'not applicable', where appropriate.

The completed form (with an envelope marked 'confidential') is to be sent, within 30 days of commencement of duty or any changes of circumstances to the chief executive officer of your local government.

Related persons

A person related to a councillor need not include information regarding an interest held jointly or in common with the councillor which is already included in the councillor's register of interests.

Section notes

The header of each field includes a reference in italics to the relevant section in Schedule 5 of the Local Government Regulation 2012.

The following notes may assist you with completing your register of interests -

11	 	The monetary value of investments does not need to be stated. The account number of, or financial amounts held in, savings or
12	_	investment accounts do not need to be stated. This does not include gifts received from related persons or other persons related by blood or marriage or friends Includes election donations made to an individual councillor and election donations made to a group of candidates of which the councillor is associated with.	Gift means either of the following— the transfer of money or other property: without consideration or for a consideration substantially less than full consideration or a loan of money or other property made on a permanent or indefinite basis, other than an overdraft facility.

13	_	This does not include incidental travel or accommodation that involve little to no value. For example, sleeping a night at a family or friend's house or car pooling arrangements.	A person receives a sponsored hospitality benefit if— • the person, other than in an official capacity— • undertakes travel or • uses accommodation and • a contribution, whether financial or nonfinancial, for the cost of the travel or accommodation is made by another person. Note: A person does not however receive a sponsored hospitality benefit if the contribution was made by the person's spouse, or other family member or friend unless there could be a perception of a conflict of interest, financial or otherwise, relating to the contribution.
14	_	Includes honorary patrons, honorary members etc.
15	-	This excludes: o household and personal effects o motor vehicles used mainly for personal use o superannuation entitlements.
16		Includes income of a proprietary company and of trusts in which the relevant person has an interest. Includes any employment where earnings are more than $500 per year.
17	_	The particulars required for each other interest of a relevant person are sufficient details of the interest to identify it.	 Interest, of the relevant person, means a financial interest or non-financial interest— of which the relevant person is aware and that raises, appears to raise, or could raise, a conflict between the relevant person's duty under the Act and the holder of the interest.

Important note

Failure to complete or update a register of interests can give rise to an offence, with associated penalties to a maximum of $9350 (85 penalty units), or $11000 (100 penalty units) if a councillor intentionally fails to complete or update their register of interest, and/or disqualification from holding office as a councillor for four years.

If you are unsure of your obligations with respect to registers of interest, it is strongly recommended that you seek independent professional advice to clarify your understanding of your obligations.
